THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST'S 33rd ANNUAL CAMERA SALE, SWAP AND SHOW

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The largest one day Camera Sale, Swap and Show in the Western United States will be held on Saturday April 13th 2013 from 10 am to 4 pm at Kent Commons Recreation Center - 525 Fourth Ave N., Kent, Washington. One hundred and forty six foot tables of digital, antique, usable and collectable photorgraphica, including early images, will be offered by collectors from Washington, California, Oregon, Nevada, Idaho, Montana, Alaska and British Columbia.

There will be up to sixteen display tables, exhibiting some of the finest historical photographic items selected from the collections of Puget Sound Photographic Collectors Society members.

The 33rd annual sale/show is sponsored by the Puget Sound Photographic Collectors Society. The sale is a virtual cornucopia of prizes and surprises for anyone interested in photography or collecting photographica. Literally thousands of photographic items will be offered for sale or trade. Included will be usable cameras (both digital and film), lenses, accessories, darkroom equipment, digital accessories, literature and images dating back to the earliest years of photography. The show's fascinating antique and collectable cameras will attract buyers from throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Asia. Yes, these instruments that "photographed our past," have truly become sought-after treasures.

Puget Sound Photographic Collectors Society, Inc., organized in 1979, is a non-profit organization of camera enthusiasts dedicated to collecting and preserving the photographica of our past. This annual sale and show is presented to encourage public awareness and appreciation of our photographic heritage. The public is encouraged to bring any photographic items they would like to have appraised or to trade or sell.

The doors will open to the general public at 10:00 am Saturday April 13, 2013; admission is $5.00. For the dedicated collector, an 8:30 am early admittance can be purchased for $15.00. Plenty of FREE parking is available.
